

I am appalled by the decision of Sinclair Broadcasting to force your stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and a misuse of the airwaves.

Your decision shows precisely why consolidation in the media does not serve the public interest. Local preferences are sacrificed to the wishes of a conglomerate.

If you persist in this partisan business, you should at least air "Going Upriver" to give some balance to the broadcast.
